Family & traditions

"I held a jewel in my fingers and went to sleep"

- Emily Dickinson -

This is Italy, the Country where tradition and history merge harmoniously with innovation and design. Where the culture of beauty and quality are considered a heritage to pass down over the centuries and where "know-how" is a precious gift to hand down from generation to generation. The story of DEA is the story of Dea Mantellassi who since she was a child cultivated the passion and "fervor" for top quality linen. She grew up among embroideries, laces, and decorations and when older became pupil of Emilia Bellini, among the most famous and distinguished embroiderers as well as founder of the most prestigious designer labels in the world for household linens.

1960's

In the mid 1960' s, thanks to her charisma and abilities, Dea started producing and selling autonomously.
Success increased and Dea created the first workshop in the fertile Chianti area, famous not only forthe wines but also for the ancient embroideries, and plentiful in skilled artisans specialised in this art.
Shortly after her two brothers started working in the company: Alfredo would take care of the financial and administrative part and Franco the commercial one.

1970's

The 1970s are the turning point for the company: in fact, colour is introduced as well as the first processes with automated labour, that is, the first use of embroidery machines operated by human hand that work alongside the traditional artisan production, which remained a cornerstone of the company.

1980's-1990's

The years between 1980 and 1990 saw the first approaches to the foreign market thanks to the arrival in the company of her daughter Sabrina, who also grew up among laces and embroideries, but especially among business management studies. Sabrina gave the family company an indelible imprint guiding it definitely towards the internationalisation of the brand and enriching it with additional commercial and distribution development.

2000's

Thus, the new millennium started for DEA, with the establishment of the new company DEA U.S.A. and the opening of its first American flagship store in Palm Beach, Florida.
The story of the DEA family continues, ...

Art becomes product

"What is bautiful is a joy for all seasons and a possession for all eternity"

- Oscar Wilde -

The product is created from the careful selection of premium woven fabrics and precious threads that are consigned to our powerful, but sophisticated looms able to weave precious cloths, in some cases already decorated by the same loom, which are then transferred to our Tuscan workshops for the following processing. It is here, in Tuscany that Dea Mantellassi, as design manager, is in charge of the delicate phases of the creation of the company' s masterpieces, such as the choice of the fabrics, colours, and designs. Innate talent, century-old tradition, precious taste of "beauty"and a fantastic "hand" are the ingredients that give prestige and appeal to each DEA creation.
In fact, in a creative corner, some designers, actually real artists, skilfully led by Dea, start a new journey: this is how a simple and light pencil mark quickly acquires, with naturalness and precision, colour until it becomes a work of art that will transform into the next DEA embroidery.

The embroideries are realised by skilled artisans specialised with unique techniques handed down fromgeneration to generation... passed on in the Tuscan territory, in the fertile Chianti area, where they, the lucky heirs of an incomparable tradition were born and raised. It is here that laces are applied and cut, the fabrics are unthreaded completely by hand, rigorously handmade polka dots are realised, the mitre of the pillowcases, and many other artisan processes which can hardly be surpassed are carried out.
In the main headquarters a meticulous and accurate quality control is carried out: the products are ironed by hand, piece by piece, and checked again, then folded and ironed again with dedicated machines that will bring them to final packaging, often controlled personally by madam Dea.... To satisfy the continuous demands of a growing and evolving market, alongside the artisanal production, over the years also the highly industrial line has broadened, always characterised by human imprint, indispensible for DEA, which decides the cuts and embroideries that the machine must execute.

Nowadays, technology is a fundamental and an indispensable "asset" for some processing and has been found to be the correct collocation within a company with a purely artisanal soul. Large machines execute precise and complex cuts on various types of fabrics with considerable advantages for the work flow.

Expert operators transfer the artistic designs to modern and powerful personal computers and it is thanks to the dedicated software, as well as great experience and ability of the operator, that technology meets art and the embroidery comes to life within the powerful industrial embroidery machines...the machine wonderfully interprets this information and, just like magic, the embroidery appears on the fabric.

Other machines create very precious and elegant laces that will be transferred, often by hand, ontoother processed household linen articles. In neighbouring workshops the direct prints on fabric, always starting from the inspiration and talent of the DEA creative department, are carried out.

The DEA product is the beautiful result of the 'made in Italy' productive strength, the soundness of a family run company strongly tied to its territory, and the result of the work of people animated by passion and talent throughout the all divisions of the company. DEA product is the fruit of a consolidated experience based on precious and unique artisan values that are also found in its modern industrial lines.

Today, the DEA product is found worldwide. Many exclusive pieces are produced, and are available to prestigious retail partners internationally and in our new 'flagship stores' both in Italy and scattered qround the world. The Dea style has always combined tradition, quality, craftsmanship, and innovation, and it produces splendid, unique and elegant creations.

WORLD'S FINEST COTTONS

SUPIMA® Cotton Collection

Dea strives to deliver the highest quality product in every aspect of our work, and that will extend to the yarns we use.

Supima Cotton is a superior type of cotton grown in the USA. It represents less than 1% of cotton grown in the world. What makes Supima® unique to other cottons is the extra-long staple fiber that gives the cotton its premium properties: Strength, Softness and Color retention, all of which can be substantiated and verified with certificates of authenticity.

Supima Cotton is farmed using state-of-the-art technologies and processes in the USA.

These technologies are used to plant, harvest and monitor the soil. All of this ensures that Supima farmers are growing the best quality cotton in the world with as little environmental impact as possible.
As with any luxurious bedding of Dea's Splendido Supima® Sateen or Fascino Supima® Percale, we continue to offer the consumer the world's very best in quality and technology. Italian crafsmanship, weaving and finishing exemplified with the use of Supima Cotton.

Art and beauty meet the oldest and most precious cotton in the world

WEST INDIAN SEA ISLAND COTTON
CERTIFIED BY WISICA ASSOCIATION (INC)
SEA ISLAND

TM west indian sea island cotton

SEA ISLAND

Our constant aim towards excellence has led Dea to discover and exalt unique raw materials, textures, and epitomize these with special productions.
Dea Couture is the premier luxury line created as the coronation of this philosophy. In this series we are introducing Sea Island Cotton, the internationally known and certified leading quality cotton.

THE MOST PRECIOUS COTTON IN THE WORLD

The West Indian Sea Island cotton was discovered in the early XVIII century in the British West Indies. Its production is infinitesimal compared to the world's total of long staple cotton (about 0.006%), and it is concentrated in the Caribbean Islands of the British West Indies (mainly Barbados, Antigua and Jamaica).
Yearly, the world's cotton production is approximately 110 million bales. 2 million of which are of extra-long staple cotton. The total annual production of Sea Island Cotton is about 130 bales.
The very high quality and production scarcity make this cotton a precious and very exclusive raw material.

Sea Island cotton can be distinguished from all the other types of cotton thanks to its unique characteristics: the considerable length of the staple, high resistance, high uniformity percentage, and incomparable lustre.
The WISICA (West Indian Sea Island Cotton Association) organisation inspects every kilo of cotton produced locally and issues a certificate of authenticity for the Sea Island brand yarn, guaranteeing its pureness.

The perfect structure of the yarn, attention to quality and traceability for every production process phase, guarantee that the articles manufactured with Sea Island fabrics can be certified with an exclusive hologram that certifies its origin and quality.
and silky articles that represent unaltered style and quality over the years, thanks to a fabric that can regenerate itself at every washing. Sea Island cotton is the perfect canvas on which Dea's art can express it's excellency.

Stelvio Coverlet

The elegance of nature
The Stelvio Collection is born from the careful observation of the most authentic details of nature, the magic of a shady and enchanted forest. Its design takes up the texture of the bark, transforming a primordial element into a contemporary and refined decorative motif. The biscuit and ivory tones recall earth and light, by giving a warm and sophisticated chromatic balance. The specific weaving produces a texture that envelops the room in an authentic comfort atmosphere.

Bolsena

Jacquard

Bolsena Jacquard

Origin: Made in Italy

Fabrication: The Bolsena Collection uses an unusual, modern fabric whose distinctive element is its unique double-faced quality. This lovely fabric is 40% cotton sateen and 60% yarn-dyed linen, the exclusive result of a high-quality Italian production chain. With its different yarns and colors, the warp and weft play off each other, generating an intriguing fabric that presents cotton sateen on one side and linen on the other. It creates an effect that is surprising for the texture of the material yet is also soft and shiny. Linen & Cotton Cotton sateen fabric has a weft with a higher number of threads on the right side than on the reverse. This type of weaving gives an unusual shine as well as making it incredibly soft. Linen is an ancient textile fiber particularly resistant with thermoregulatory characteristics (warm in winter and cool in summer). Combined with cotton, the fabric becomes exceptionally lightweight, with a soft, delicate hand as well as easy to wash and iron. Linen is a hypoallergenic and antibacterial fabric whose cultivation is environmentally friendly as it requires very little irrigation and few pesticides

Canarie

Jacquard/Quilt

Canarie Jacquard/Quilt

Origin: Made in Italy

Inspiration: «Das Ewig-Weibliche zieht uns hinan», that is, «the eternal feminine draws us upward». This is how the last line of Goethe's Faust ends: with a strong call to femininity in its most unchangeable essence and celebrating love as the creative and motor power of the whole universe. These are the suggestions that guided our hand in the creation of the Canarie and Villa Seta Collections. Female beings, in their grace and strength, are portrayed as refined orchids, a symbol of multi-sensory and complex beauty, but also of living beings that are capable of great resilience. Same as this flower, feminine essence owns uniqueness, fascination and mystery, which are amplified by the special light of the precious Villa Seta Collection.

This piece-dyed 600-TC jacquard was made using the finest long-fiber Egyptian cotton. Because of its complex construction, jacquard fabric is the height of textile arts. The motif is woven directly into the fabric instead of being drawn or printed on it. With this particular process, exquisite designs can be created, and graceful, harmonious stories told through its warp and weft. The former is the base, a set of parallel threads arranged longitudinally, while the latter, the weft, is the thread inserted several times into the threads forming the warp to build the weave, namely, the actual design. This extraordinarily complex and detailed procedure used for the Canarie series allows a high-quality fabric such as 600-TC Egyptian cotton to become an even more valuable fabric. Consequently, the design is in the material directly without using color, giving the appearance of a thousand points of light with alternating reflections between the glossy and opaque long-fiber parts. The fabric is double-twisted, i.e., with both the warp and the weft yarns. Each is made up of two threads twisted together. In this way, the material becomes a very dense weave, even more resistant and long-lasting, as well as softer and easier to iron because it is crease and wrinkle-resistant

Care Instruction: Machine wash in warm water, gentle cycle. Do Not bleach. Wash dark colors separately. Tumble dry on low heat or line dry until slightly damp. Steam iron

Carezza Jacquard/Insert

Origin: Made in Italy

Ispiration and fabrication: We always create products by getting our inspiration from dreams of the countryside. This is how Carezza collection has been created, by admiring the beauty and the lightness of the Dandelion flower. It's seeds are strongly linked to the stem, but a breath of wind makes them flying into the sky. The Carezza Collection's distinctive element is it's very elegant, high-quality fabric, made from a very fine extra-long combed cotton yarn. Because of its complex construction jacquard fabric is the height of textile artistry. The motif is woven directly into the fabric instead of being drawn or printed on it. With this process, exquisite designs can be created, and graceful harmonious stories told through its warp and weft. The former is the base, a set of parallel threads arranged longitudinally, while the latter, the weft, is the thread inserted several times into these threads forming the warp to build the weave, namely, the actual design. Consequently, the design is in the material directly without using color, giving the appearance of a thousand points of light with alternating reflections between the glossy and opaque long-fiber parts. Produced by our expert Italian artisans.

Matera Jacquard/Quilt

Inspiration: “Every corner of our beautiful country represents an inexhaustible source of inspiration. Italy is the nation that holds the highest number of sites included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. These are places with a remarkable universal value for history, archaeology and art. With the Matera Collection, we thought to celebrate one of these excellences. This is a city that, with its ancient Sassi and caves dug into the rock, is an inexhaustible source of artistic stimulations. Its winding roads tell millennial histories of civilization and culture. Every corner, with light playing on the rocks, evokes images of past times and timeless suggestions. The mystic atmosphere and rough beauty of the landscape turn Matera into a place where art finds its most authentic and deepest voice, same as our collections”.

This piece-dyed 600-TC jacquard was made using the finest long-fiber Egyptian cotton. Because of its complex construction, jacquard fabric is the height of textile arts. Vestale

Vestale Jacquard

Inspiration: Vestale collection is born from the encounter between the Italian textile excellence and the Meddle-Eastern patterns. Inspired by the precious decorative motifs of the Asian tradition. The fabric has been woven with a unique jacquard technique. 600 TC yand-dyed jacquard made with the ancient Lampasso weaving technique. This sophisticated weave armor, very well known for its complexity and rich texture, allows the artisan to weave various colors and thickness threads, creating three-dimensional drawings, that seem to be “carved” into the fabric. it becomes opaque and shiny at the same time.
Vestale is a contemporary Dea’s tribute to a refine and contemplative imagination, interpreted with the traditional Tuscan craftsmanship and addressed to decorate every bedroom with a solemn and whispered elegance.

Aura

Aura Lace

"Gardens and villas, gardens and landscapes are inseparable images in my Tuscany, where the farm ends in the garden, and the villa starts in the garden. With Aura, we have reproduced that faint sensation of walking along the edge of a pond interspersed with flowers like tulips and dahlias, all washed in the morning dew".
The Aura Collection comes exclusively in cotton sateen, a premium, tightly woven fabric with more threads in the warp to give it a particular aesthetic and luminosity. The prints on these precious fabrics best express the various colors, while all the laces light up with snow-white flashes. The absolute elegance of these fabrics is accompanied by snug comfort throughout the year and its excellent durability. Premium quality and an exclusive pattern distinguish the lace used in the Aura Lace Collection. The addition of the highest level of professional craftsmanship transforms every individual element into a masterpiece. Only a skilled artisan's superiority produces the perfection of stitches hidden in the lace design, complementing it without ever interrupting the visual harmony of the whole.

Inspiration: “Every corner of our beautiful country represents an inexhaustible source of inspiration. Italy is the nation that holds the highest number of sites included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. These are places with a remarkable universal value for history, archaeology and art. With the Matera Collection, we thought to celebrate one of these excellences. This is a city that, with its ancient Sassi and caves dug into the rock, is an inexhaustible source of artistic stimulations. Its winding roads tell millennial histories of civilization and culture. Every corner, with light playing on the rocks, evokes images of past times and timeless suggestions. The mystic atmosphere and rough beauty of the landscape turn Matera into a place where art finds its most authentic and deepest voice, same as our collections”.

Annabella

Print

Annabella Print

Inspiration: A Floral Enchantment inspired by the Renaissance. The Annabella design has been created by looking at the flower garlands that frame La Primavera by Sandro Bollicelli with grace and armony.
Each Flower has been carefully chosen to tell the story of beauty, rebirth and delicacy of the naturalistic design.
Dea wanted to translate that timeless imagery into a textile design, where nature becomes poetry and the bed turns into a secret garden. The result is a precious and enveloping printed pattern that pays homage to art with its purest expression.

Ava Raso Cotton Sateen Print

Grace meets the Oriental elegance
Poppy fields blowing in the wind, clear skies and gently rolling hills: inspiration comes from the natural beauty of the Tuscany summer, when the warm light gently wraps around the landscape.
On this painting we find the Japanese aestethics, made of essential signs, compositional elegance and sense of emptiness. Ava is a poetic and refine collection, with a story telling of Nature on The cotton sateen background fabric. Flowers, blowing in the wind, seem to dance same as the light ink on rice paper. They recall in us images and evoke a fine balance between the artisan tradition and the artistic sensibility.

Canarie

Canarie Print

Origin: Made in Italy

Inspiration: «Das Ewig-Weibliche zieht uns hinan», that is, «the eternal feminine draws us upward».
This is how the last line of Goethe's Faust ends: with a strong call to femininity in its most unchangeable essence and celebrating love as the creative and motor power of the whole universe. These are the suggestions that guided our hand in the creation of the Canarie and Villaseta Collections. Female beings, in their grace and strength, are portrayed as refined orchids, a symbol of multi-sensory and complex beauty, but also of living beings that are capable of great resilience. Same as this flower, feminine essence owns uniqueness, fascination and mystery, which are amplified by the special light of the precious Villaseta Collection.

Flora

Flora Print

Inspiration: “Same as the poet John Milton who, in 1639, found inspiration for its “Paradise Lost”, we were also enraptured by the bliss of the woods of Vallombrosa, a wonderful natural reserve that isn’t far from Florence.” The forest vegetation, with its wild and mysterious beauty, inspired the Flora and Tratteggio Collections. The light tricks among the branches, the earthy scents and the sounds of nature create an unspeakable atmosphere. Every tree, shrub and musk tells stories of life and growth. This variety of shapes and colours boosted our imagination and invites us to capture vitality and harmony to turn them into items of furniture, which accompany us every day.

Profumi Print

Inspiration: “Simplicity is the highest form of sophistication, same as the visual magic of a bush of spontaneous flowers in the Tuscan countryside is an enchantment of colours and perfumes. Every petal tells stories of sun and wind and reflects the natural beauty of the territory. The variety of flowers, with their unique nuances and shapes, creates a living picture that celebrates the simplicity and wonder of nature.” The Profumi Collection represents all of this and combines perfectly with the linear shapes of the embroideries and nuances of the Mietta Collection.

Acquerello

Table

Acquerello Table

Origin: Made in Italy

Fabrication: 100% Linen

Inspiration: The countryside and gardens in our Tuscany continually provide us with wonderful views, a wealth of images and colors that guide our inspiration. The light that plays on the flower petals, the scents that intoxicate the soul are the feeling we want to bring into your homes.

Table linen: 100% linen

Embroidery gives the Acquerello series a uniquely sophisticated mood. The interplay of flowers on the white background is created using two stitches from the Italian needlework tradition: the silk stitch and the stem stitch. Also called the straight or longand-short stitch, the former permits painting with a needle and thread, expressed like a brushstroke of color with a long stitch that creates three-dimensionality and a play of light. The stem stitch is ideal for depicting particulars with a sort of delicate cord. This embroidery stitch remains very soft to the touch and can be a simple or double stitch

Colors: Thread colors proposed are available on white and ivory

Hem: Plain

Care Instruction: Machine wash in warm water, gentle cycle. Do Not bleach. Wash dark colors separately. Tumble dry on low heat or line dry until slightly damp. Steam iron on “cotton” setting on the reverse side of the fabric.

Arno Table

The Arno Collection's contemporary style is also seen in our practical table sets, ideal for enjoying Dea elegance throughout the day.

The satin or long-and-short stitch is a flat-stitch variant and is part of a series of traditional Italian embroidery stitches. Different colors of yarns are used for the satin stitch, whose various lengths are arranged irregularly to ensure that the play of tone-on-tone color creates particular chromatic transitions. This stitch is so named because the dense stitches of silky polychrome yarns cover the background fabric entirely, creating a glossy effect similar to that of painted satin. With the Arno Collection, embroidery acquires a particularly modern look thanks to the distinctive, highly stylized design that frames the shapes and emphasizes the beauty of the fabrics

Colibrì Embroidery Table

Printed and embroidered versions of the table set put the finishing touch to the Colibrì series.
The ancient art of embroidery has always enhanced the allure of home linens and furnishings. In addition, Dea demonstrates its great artistry through its knowing how to “compose” their embroideries using different techniques. We create elaborate designs with a play of light, always guaranteeing an extremely pleasing product. For Colibrì, the satin, silk, and stem stitches are used harmoniously, whose wealth of colors makes this process highly complex and appreciated. Moreover, the final result is absolutely surprising. The pattern springs to life through the three-dimensionality given by the colors, the lights and darks, and the reflected light playing differently off of the individual stitches.

Satin Stitch
The satin stitch is definitely the one used the most. It is worked by using:
- a running stitch to trace the outline and then the internal part of the design;
- a series of straight stitches sewn very closely together, (similar to the satin stitch), to neatly fill in the design.

Silk stitch
The silk stitch represents the art of painting with a needle. This is because a long stitch gives an impression of three-dimensionality creating masterpieces through the nuances that reproduce how the play of light on these particulars, through graduations of color and by maintaining the perspective.

Stem stitch
The stem stitch is ideal for depicting elements with a kind of delicate cord. The work is very soft to the touch and either a simple or a double stitch can be used

The lace is transparent because the fabric underneath the lace after sewing is cut by hand. In addition, the Liri collection features openwork embroidery that frames the lace adding grace and elegance. The entire process imparts a modern linear style. Mirea Table

Inspiration: Surrounded the the Tuscanian hills we took the inspiration to design the Mirea collection. In an old village in the Chianti area, among beautiful hill, we built our lab. From generation to generation we develop there high-end hancrafted skills.
Embroidery gives the Mirea series a uniquely sophisticated mood. The interplay of leaves on the white background is created using two stitches from the Italian needlework tradition: the silk stitch and the stem stitch. Also called the straight or longand-short stitch, the former permits painting with a needle and thread, expressed like a brushstroke of color with a long stitch that creates three-dimensionality and a play of light. Annabella Embroidery - G2

A Floral Enchantment inspired by the Renaissance. The Annabella design has been created by looking at the flower garlands that frame La Primavera by Sandro Bollicelli with grace and harmony. Each Flower has been carefully chosen to tell the story of beauty, rebirth and delicacy of the naturalistic design.
Dea wanted to translate that timeless imagery into a textile design, where nature becomes poetry and the bed turns into a secret garden. The result is a precious and enveloping embroidery that pays homage to art with its purest expression.

Gabrio

Embroidery

Gabrio Embroidery - G2

Origin: Made in Italy

Fabrication: 100% Cotton.

Dea offers matchless hand embroideries made entirely in its Tuscan workshops. Embroidery is an ancient art that has always enhanced linens and home furnishings, handwork that the company has managed to maintain and pass on internally. Dea's great skill also arises from knowing how to "compose" their embroideries using various techniques to create elaborate designs and a shimmering surface, always guaranteeing an extraordinarily delightful product. The satin or long-and-short stitch is a flat-stitch variant and is part of a series of traditional Italian embroidery stitches. Different colors of yarns are used for the satin stitch, whose various lengths are arranged irregularly to ensure that the play of tone-on-tone color creates particular chromatic transitions. This stitch is so named because the dense stitches of silky polychrome yarns cover the background fabric entirely, creating a glossy effect similar to that of painted satin. With the GABRIO Collection, embroidery acquires a particularly modern look thanks to the distinctive, highly stylized design that frames the shapes and emphasizes the beauty of the fabrics.

The refined, geometric style can also be found in the Liri embroidery collection. The lace design uses a delicate embroidery in a subtle palette of colors to introduce more vivacious elements that increase the chromatic effect. The ancient art of embroidery has always adorned home furnishings and textiles. The satin stitch, or long-and-short stitch, is used for this series, a flat-stitch variant and one of the most widely used stitches in traditional Italian production.

Matera Embroidery - G1

Inspiration: “Every corner of our beautiful country represents an inexhaustible source of inspiration. Italy is the nation that holds the highest number of sites included in the UNESCO World Heritage List. These are places with a remarkable universal value for history, archaeology and art. With the Matera Collection, we thought to celebrate one of these excellences. This is a city that, with its ancient Sassi and caves dug into the rock, is an inexhaustible source of artistic stimulations. Its winding roads tell millennial histories of civilization and culture. Every corner, with light playing on the rocks, evokes images of past times and timeless suggestions. The mystic atmosphere and rough beauty of the landscape turn Matera into a place where art finds its most authentic and deepest voice, same as our collections”.
